Atty. Jessielle is a lawyer and accounting practitioner. Having affiliated with Fabian and Associate, CPAs, she has gained considerable knowledge and expertise in the field of business, tax, and accounting. She has also specialized in the field of corporate law, registration, and intra-corporate disputes. After obtaining her Master's degree in law in the University of Southern California, she returned to the Philippines to impart her newly acquired knowledge on Intellectual Property and Merger's and Acquisition. While she was in America, she obtained a certification for Business Law and Technology and Entrepreneurship.

Currently, she is a law professor at the Ateneo de Davao University and has conducted a number of seminars and lectures regarding the topic of corporate law and labor law to both students, clients, and the public.

In addition to active litigation, Jessielle had consulted extensively with clients regarding good business practices and corporate governance. Finally, she has paved the way for both local and foreign clients to successfully establish their businesses in the Philippines.
